Gentlemen:

We are sending you, under separate cover, the books from our list which you desire, with the exception of Carter's British War Medals which had already been sold.

I have made the price of the first title $2.50 instead of $3.50 as quoted, because I have since learned that $3.50 would be exorbitant for it.

Also, the title by Atkins Iversen was misread in copying. The description stated that it was Octavo, and your order mistakenly assumed that it was eight volumes.

I trust you will be pleased with these books when they are received. Despite the fact that the Neumann set is in poor condition, some of them are very hard to obtain at the present time.

Very truly yours,

Librarian and Secretary

Mr. E. T. Newell,
American Numismatic Society,
156th Street and Broadway,
New York City.

My dear Sir:

You have already received, I presume, a letter from Mr. John W. Garrett regarding the collection of coins which I left at your office yesterday. These coins were collected by the Rev. J. C. Wilson, who is a missionary in Tabriz, Persia, and represent the finds made by peasants in that region. They have a peculiar interest, it seems to me, in that they illustrate, to some degree, the trade routes which led them to that remote city.

Mr. Wilson is offering these coins to us at about what he paid for them, namely $100.00, and Mr. Garrett has intimated that he may furnish the money for the purchase of the collection if, in your judgment, the coins are worth the price that is asked. When you have examined them, may I ask you to be so good as to have them sent to me by express collect.

Very truly yours,

James Thayer Gerould,
Librarian.

James Thayer Gerould, Esq.
Librarian, Princeton University
Princeton, N.J.

Dear Mr. Gerould:

After writing you last evening, I received this morning yours of March 16th.

As stated in my previous letter, I know this collection belonging to the Rev. J. C. Wilson very well. The collection, as a whole, is certainly most interesting from a historical and archaeological standpoint. On the market, however, it would not be worth more than about a hundred dollars, as I have already informed Dr. Wilson. Unfortunately, the collection contains nothing exceptionally scarce or desirable to a collector, but, I am sure, taken as a whole, it is worth the figure I have quoted. I have written Mr. Garrett to this effect.

Following your instructions, the collection is being returned to you by Express, collect.

Always glad to be of service in such cases,

Very truly yours,

President

Gentlemen:

The coin catalogues sent recently and covered by your bill of December 14 have been checked over and we find that there are three items that are duplicates, namely, one of the Sotheby Sales, the Stiavelli Sale and the Hoskier Sale. We are able to deduct for the first two but do not know what you have figured for Hoskier. If you will tell us the amount we shall then make a deduction for the three titles and see that your bill is paid next month at the balance. The three duplicates are being returned at once under another cover.

The package of boxes for coins was received and we shall be glad if you will send us a bill to cover that material.

Very truly yours,
James Thayer Gerould,
Librarian.

Dear Sir:

Responding to yours of the 23rd, the three catalogues returned have been received. The values I had marked for these were $4.00, $5.00 and $1.50, making a total of $10.50. If you will deduct this amount from the memorandum sent you, the remainder will be correct.

I am enclosing a bill for the 320 card-board boxes sent you as per my arrangement with Professor Weber.

Very truly yours,

Secretary

Gentlemen:

Responding to your inquiry of October 19th,
I regret that we do not have the title for which you ask unless it has been published serially in one of the periodicals. If you can give me the approximate date and place of publication, I will try farther. I do not find it in the New York Public Library list.
